All in a Garden Green

celebrating the garden through the ages in music and words

Saturday 3rd May 7.00 pm

St Margaret's Church

The early music trio, Hexachordia, presents a celebration of the English garden in music and words entitled "All in a Garden Green". Playing on authentic copies of original instruments from the Medieval and Tudor eras, the group performs music inspired by formal gardens and the English countryside.

Refreshments available afterwards.

Tickets £7.50. Pay on the door.
